RaboDirect Customer number

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Important Note

If you are simply wanting to transfer funds into your RaboDirect account from another bank, you do not need to change your linked account. Funds can be paid directly into your RaboDirect account as a direct credit payment initiated through your other bank. The easiest way to achieve this is as a 'pay anyone' transaction initiated through your other bank's internet banking solution.
